In 1873, Michael J. McGivney, left his studies due to his father's untimely death, helping to take care of his family. He was the eldest of 13 children, born to Irish immigrants.

Once his family became financially stable, he resumed his education and became a priest in 1877. Five years later, Fr. McGivney established the Knights of Columbus. The Order was formed to help financially support the families of immigrants who lost their fathers / wage earners due to untimely deaths.

The Knights of Columbus is founded upon 3 core principles:

- Charity

- Fraternity

With the 4th Degree adding one more:

- Patriotism
